2025/2026 CATHOLIC MINISTRIES APPEAL

*Together We Bring Hope
...and Hope does not disappoint*

This year's Catholic Ministries Appeal has begun and we have initiated St. Rita's efforts to meet our CMA responsibility for the 7th consecutive year, as well as use our energies to finish before Christmas. We kicked-off our CMA a bit after other parishes, so we are behind the others in Webster, but I am confident that by the Grace of God and your generosity we will have a wonderful CMA.

I have written in the past about how your gifts support the work of the Diocese of Rochester, the local Church to which we belong. Here are some diocesan efforts that were helped by last year's CMA in the area of Pastoral Services:

Provided resources for building a culture of life through an integrated approach to education, prayer, advocacy, and support for Human Life through the Office of Life Issues and LifeROC

Served as liaison for the reinstatement of the Knights of Peter Claver Council and Court #106

Promoted the growth of Walking with Moms in Need, an initiative from the USCCB to accompany and provide important resources for pregnant women and mothers

Expanded Migrant Ministry in our 12-County Diocese based now in 6 faith communities and 2 migrant centers

If you need more reasons to support the CMA, I encourage you to do some research on the Diocese of Rochester web page at: www.dor.org/cma

Thank you so much for your support of the CMA and of St. Rita!

Yours in Christ,
Fr. Tim

Reflections on Readings for Twenty-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Be Persistent, Whether It Be Convenient or Inconvenient"

It is said that prayer is communicating with God in a relationship of love and trust. Last Sunday, our readings talked about prayers of praise and thanksgiving – our response to God's healing touch in our lives. This Sunday's readings focus our attention on the prayers of petition for ourselves and others, and our persistence in praying to God. If even the dishonest judge would grant the persistent widow her request, how much more then, will our God of Love and Mercy respond to our prayers.

In our first reading (Exodus 17:8-13), we hear the story of the Israelites who were fighting a battle with Amalek after being attacked at Rephidim. Only when Moses' arms are outstretched were the Israelites successful in battle. They prevailed in their battle only because of God's mercy at the prayers and persistence of Moses.

In our Epistle reading (2 Tim 3:14-4:2), St. Paul continues to instruct his protégé Timothy to remain faithful to what he had learned from the Scriptures and charged him to be persistent in his pastoral duties of proclaiming the Gospel. Paul reminds us that all Scripture is inspired by God and useful for teaching.

In our Gospel reading (Luke 18:1-8), Jesus instructed His followers on the importance of persistence in prayer and faithfulness. He told them the parable of the persistent widow, who wore down the dishonest judge with her persistence. Surely God, who loves us, would do no less.

At times, we can lose heart and give up too easily in our prayer and our religious devotion, expecting results in our time and manner instead of God's.

Our ultimate prayer is for salvation, and in that we must always remain steadfast and hopeful, and trust in God's plan. May God grant us not only persistence in prayer, but also patience and trust.

A Message from your Parish Health Ministry Team

Healthy Lifestyle

A healthy lifestyle can help you thrive throughout your life. Here are some useful tips suggested by the U.S. Center For Disease Control and Prevention (CDC).

Focus on a balanced diet rich in fruits, lean protein, and whole grains. Limit unhealthy fats, excess salt, and added sugars. Drink plenty of fluids, primarily water, throughout the day to stay hydrated.

Maintain physical activity. Move more and sit less. Incorporate activities you enjoy such as walking, biking, and gardening into your day. Get quality sleep and manage stress.

Visit your doctor for regular check-ups, screenings, and vaccinations. Avoid smoking and limit alcohol intake. Take care of your mental health by engaging in hobbies, connecting with others, and maintaining a positive attitude.

Finally, build a healthy environment by making healthy choices.

Over the Jubilee Year, we will explore the themes of Hope, Pilgrimage, and Jubilee, always ending with a question for you to consider over the week.

In today's Gospel, we hear about a dishonest judge rendering judgment compared to God "seeing to it that justice is done ... speedily." We hold hope that in the end, God will find us worthy, and through the acts of our jubilee pilgrimage exploring these themes, we work to make it so.

pondering Point

Do you see God as someone who brings judgment or justice?

Catholic Social Teaching

The Church's Best-Kept Secret

Peter Maurin, who along with Dorothy Day founded the Catholic Worker Movement, once expressed that Catholic Social Teaching is the Church's best-kept secret. Not because it is hidden, but because it is a treasure that has not been well shared. If you have not heard of it, that is OK. This article is the first of several that will help us all know of this precious treasure of the Church.

Catholic Social Teaching is the application of the Gospel of Jesus Christ to our behavior toward the people that the Church is meant to love and care for. It encourages the work of the Church and economic systems toward changes that lift up those who are poor and oppressed.

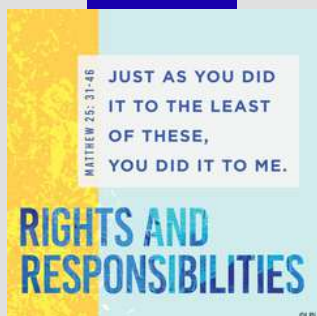

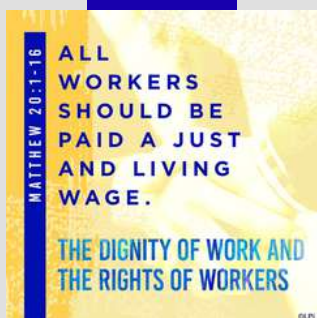

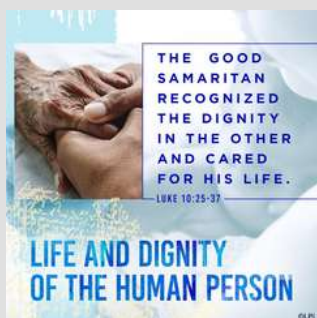

The heart of Catholic Social Teaching is the truth of the Sacredness of the Human Person. This truth of human sacredness flows from our Sacred Scriptures: God, who is love (1 John 4:8), has lovingly created human beings in His own "image and likeness". In Genesis 1:25-27, we read, "Let us make humankind in our image, according to our likeness" and "'So God created humankind in his own image, in the image of God he created them; male and female he created them". The Sacredness of the Human Person cannot be improved upon, nor can it be lost by any human being's disregard or sin. From conception to natural death, every person is sacred.

In today's reading from 2 Timothy 3:14 - 4:2, we are assured that our Scriptures are not merely beautiful in their own right, but are a source of inspiration by the Holy Spirit that helps us live well and that trains us for every good work. Catholic Social Teaching is not a philosophy or a recipe for living successful lives. Catholic Social Teaching is the wisdom of God that flows from Scripture and is taught to us by the Holy Spirit.

So, if we are to believe that we, and every other person, without regard to their wealth, class, popularity, innocence, or power (or lack thereof), are to be held in highest regard because of our sacredness, what does this mean for how we interact with others and how the systems of our society can more lovingly work?

Now we get into the details of Catholic Social Teaching, which will be continued next week...

Peace,
Fr. Tim

2024-2025 Annual Finance Report to Parishioners

Dear Parishioners.

Thank you for your support of the parish and school shown through your participation, prayers, volunteer time, and financial generosity. We continue to make progress on our mission as exemplified by the many highlights this past year.

Our financial situation has also improved greatly over the last two years. Weekly collections have increased by 17% during this period – which has made a significant difference in our ability to cover growing expenses such as utilities, insurance, and healthcare, as well as complete a number of campus improvement projects. As you know, these expenses continue to rise and we kindly ask for your ongoing support and increased contributions.

2024-25 Highlights

- Weekly Mass attendance has increased 9% in over the last two years.
- We surpassed our CMA goal, with $8,000 being returned to Saint Rita to help cover future expenses.
- St. Rita School enrollment continues to increase. The school now serves 246 students in a faith-based environment with two classrooms for most grades and over 50 children in Pre-School.
- We supported 204 children and teens in Faith Formation, Sacramental Preparation, and Confirmation.
- Saint Rita ministries serve one another and many in need in our community through activities such as the monthly COME dinners and donations at Thanksgiving, Christmas, and throughout the year.
- A number of campus improvement projects have been completed including:
 - Parish Center door replacement
 - New carpeting in school halls as well as energy efficient lighting replacement and addition of ceiling fans in the classrooms
 - Parish Office updates -- painting, lighting, and flooring
 - Parking lot repaving for the rear entrance and back areas
